

Manage everything in your workplace in one place

Envoy helps you manage your front desk, mailroom, meeting rooms, and more so your team can spend less time sweating the small stuff and more time reaching higher together.

Visitors

Welcome your guests and keep your workplace safe

Greet guests with the sign-in that protects your workplace and saves your team time.

Deliveries

Manage your incoming office mail with ease

Avoid package pile up, keep your lobby clean, and delight your team with Deliveries.

Rooms

Spend less time finding a place to meet

Help your employees find and book an available meeting room in seconds with Rooms.

Mobile

Give your team a better way to experience your workplace

Empower employees to register guests, find nearby rooms, and get notified of packages all in one place.

Make your workplace work better

Strengthen security

Prevent unwanted guests from coming on-site, know who's in your building at all times, and make sure packages reach their owners.

Optimize with data and insights

Get insight into visitor and delivery volume and how people use your meeting rooms to create a better workplace for your team.

Deliver a great workplace experience

Free up employees' time for more meaningful work by notifying them of their visitors and deliveries and ensuring they can find a place to meet.
